

Paths To Leadership: Power Through Feminine Dignity

Take delight in others and propagate dignity.

The warrior principles of genuineness, decency, and goodness all lead us to work with others. When this occurs, basic goodness is no longer a theory or a moralistic concept. It is direct and personal experience. Therefore, you can trust in your ability to see the setting-sun or degraded world and trust in your ability to help those trapped in it. You are the vanguard to uplift your society—to begin with your parents and friends. People often say that it's too difficult to work with others, that it's impossible to help them. But that is not true, it has to be done, and you can do it well. Shambhala vision is not purely a philosophy.
